

Wheelie Big Breakfast

invitation

Thursday 21st June 2007

As part of National Bike Week
The Big Wheel in association with Nottingham City Council and Nottinghamshire County Council would like to invite you to our Wheelie Big Breakfast on Thursday 21st June 2007.

We want you to enjoy cycling as much as we do – so leave your car at home and use your bike to get to work on Thursday 21st June! And, as a way to say 'thanks' for your effort we're pulling out all the stops to provide you with a slap up breakfast absolutely free!

Simply come along on your bike to Nottingham's Old Market Square between 8am and 10am and we'll fuel you up for work with a hot breakfast, which includes vegetarian options.
All our cooked breakfasts are made from locally sourced suppliers.

To register your place at the breakfast simply go to www.thebigwheel.org.uk

So, cycle down to the Old Market Square to take part in the Wheelie Big Breakfast... it's an easy way to keep fit, healthy and it helps the environment too!
